

Lincoln the Place to Be

Lincoln Salt Dogs

May—August

saltdogs.com

The Lincoln Saltdogs are playing their 20th season at Haymarket Park, which will be the setting for 50 home games annually. The Saltdogs are a member of the American Association of Independent Professional Baseball, which includes teams from Canada to Texas. For all things Saltdogs or to order tickets, call 402-474-2255 or visit online at saltdogs.com

Roca Berry Farm

late September - October 30

Roca Berry Farm has been harvesting memories since 1980. Located just 7 miles south of Lincoln, Roca Berry Farm's 40 acre pumpkin patch is the largest and oldest in Lancaster County. Guests can enjoy over 50 activities and rides for families and groups including four late night fright on the weekends. It is a must visit for family fun.

The Haymarket Farmer's Market

May—October (Saturdays at 8 am—12 pm)

lincolnhaymarket.org

Local entertainers, farm-fresh produce, baked goods, jams, jellies, honey, fresh and dried flowers, bedding plants, herbs and hand-crafted items will be for sale. The Haymarket Farmer's Market is around 7th and P streets. Call (402) 435-7496 for more information.

Lincoln Stars Hockey

October—April

lincolnstars.com

Enjoy fast-paced, hard hitting and highly skilled USHL hockey played at The Ice Box, in Lincoln. Check out an unbelievable pre-game light show, fun filled contests, future NHL'ers and the USHL's best fans. Voted top five places to see a Jr. Hockey game in North America, a Stars game is an evening to be experienced.

Jazz in June

June (Tuesdays at 5 pm)

jazzinjune.com

Jazz in June has become more than just a tradition in Lincoln. It's a summer standard. Organized by The University of Nebraska—Lincoln with the help of many generous sponsors, the free Tuesday evening series is one of Lincoln's sublime summer delights.

Holidays in the Haymarket

Fridays in December

lincolnhaymarket.org

The event is held from 6–9 pm on Friday nights. See Santa strolling through the streets and enjoy entertainment throughout the Haymarket. Also, enjoy a horse and carriage ride! Activities will be around 7th and P streets. Call (402) 435-7496 for more details.