

ten things you'll love about Lincoln

We're trend setters.

The Nebraska Capitol, seen from miles away, is described as the nation's first truly vernacular state capitol. Oh, and Nebraska is the only state with a unicameral legislative system.

We're curious.

Rated among the nation's best zoos for children by Parent Magazine, the nationally award winning Lincoln Children's Zoo is home to over 400 creatures. Get a close-up view of your favorite animals.

We're cultivated.

Say hello to "Archie", the life-sized bronze Columbian mammoth outside Morrill Hall. Travel back in time and take a glimpse at our primitive past. You can even hang out with some dinosaurs, just to thrill your inner child.

We're artsy.

The Sheldon Museum of Art houses a collection of more than 12,000 objects in a landmark Philip Johnson building on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln City Campus. Take some time to unwind and eliminate the stress of your daily life.

We're outdoorsy.

Pioneers Park includes over 288 acres of green space. Reclaim your inner explorer, while embracing your adventurous side.

We're history buffs.

Enjoy cool old stuff with a cool new look at the Nebraska History Museum. Take a tour and connect to captivating Nebraska stories.

We're speedy.

The Speedway Motors Museum of American Speed is dedicated to preserving, interpreting and displaying physical items significant in racing and automotive history. Take a look around and find out what makes up a racing engine.

We're cultured.

Uncover quilts from around the world and across generations at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. We're overflowing with all sorts of art and culture (and no, it's not just of depictions corn).

We're imaginative.

Rated the top children's attraction in Lincoln by Trip Advisor, the Lincoln Children's Museum, allows families to create, discover and learn as they explore a world of pretend made just for kids. Channel your inner kid and slip into an imaginative world of your own here.

We're Lincoln.

We top all kinds of charts. CNBC rated us #9 in their 2019 Top States for Business, while SmartAsset ranked us #2 for their 2020 edition of Cities With the Best Work-Life Balance. Forget the cornfields, we can offer you the best of the city with small town roots.